Carroll Court Reporting and Video Unveils New Office in the Heart of Oakland County.

Mt. Clemens, MI - Carroll Court Reporting and Video has announced the opening of its newest office in Troy, Michigan. Carroll Court Reporting and Video is a full service, family-owned national court reporting firm offering a full array of court reporting and video services to law firms across Michigan and nationally. Headquartered in Mt. Clemens, they have been serving the legal community for more than 45 years with 8 offices including Detroit, Grand Rapids, and Ann Arbor. Their newest court reporting and video location at 1861 East Maple Road in Troy, Michigan is now open.

According to Carroll Court Reporting President, Matthew Carroll, "Being here gives us the ability to offer the most personal and timely service possible to our existing and future clients in Oakland County."

"Troy is really the legal and business hub of the county and is home to more than 30% of its law firms. We're very excited about the expansion and the increased opportunities this new location brings."

Carroll Court Reporting and Video has an in-state and national network of over 50 professional court reporters. In Michigan, they also have a dedicated video team with over 20 years experience in video depositions, trial presentation and many other audio/visual needs.

Carroll Court Reporting and Video currently assists law firms in a variety of legal support roles including court reporting, video, real time depositions, trial presentation and process serving. Several of our offices also maintain conference rooms for video or traditional depositions and reporting.
