Macomb Court Reporters, Inc. Announces Name Change to Carroll Court Reporting and Video (CCR&V). New Name Reflects Company's Expansion

July 2013

Mt. Clemens, MI - Matthew Carroll, President, is proud to announce that Macomb Court Reporters, Inc. has changed its name to Carroll Court Reporting and Video (CCR&V). The new name accompanies the expansion and revision of a company already renowned for its quality and service to the metropolitan-Detroit and southeast Michigan areas. Carroll Court Reporting and Video is a Michigan-based company devoted to delivering reliable court reporting and additional court services to local and nationally based clients. The name change will include rebranding of products and marketing materials and will take place over the course of the next few months to help promote CCR&V's new identity.

"Our objective in changing our name is to accurately represent the newly refined Carroll Court Reporting and Video which, through expansion of employees and services, is better suited to deliver results for your court reporting needs. Our passionate and competent staff strives to generate a positive experience for our clients who are always our number one priority," stated Matthew Carroll.

Carroll Court Reporting and Video is a family-owned and operated company that opened its doors in 1967, and has been a reliable and distinguished source for court reporting since. CCR&V has recently expanded its staff to over 50 experienced and committed court reporters that are readily available to assess and accomplish your audio/video needs along with so much more. CCR&V has established a reputation for quality and reliability in Michigan, and with its recent expansion is branching out to provide the same service on a national level. CCR&V prides itself on being able to provide a local feel with resources available on a nationwide scale such as state-of-the-art recording and editing equipment that produce optimal results.
